

Cinderella and seven dwarves

Cinderella was very eager to go to the ball, where the prince had to choose a bride. Cinderella's stepmother forbade her to enter the castle and she burned all her nice clothes. Cinderella ran to the pond at the mine where they worked seven dwarves. When the dwarves finished their work, they went home. They suddenly heard crying and saw as Cinderella weeps. They wondered what happened to her. Cinderella tells about her sad life. The dwarves say that if she has fulfilled three roles, so she will be presented with dress, horse and carriage with makeup by them. The first task was: How many cookies remained when Snowwhite Dwarf baked 128 and each dwarf ate after 4, 28 cakes put animals in the forest, 5 gave the hens and 3 offered poor Queen, who came for lunch. Cinderella replied 64th. The first task was accomplished. The second task was: How many diamond mines manager handed midgets, if each of the dwarfs dug after 30 diamonds, 3 of which are broken, 4 lost and each of the dwarfs took home 2 diamonds. Cinderella said 189th. The second task was accomplished, too. It still awaits a challenge for her: How many people were at a party? When every dwarf invited 3 friends, Snowwhite Dwarf will invite 3 friends? The evil queen was invited too along with three other queens. Neither three friends of dwarves nor one queen, did not come. But 28 unexpected guests came to the party. Cinderella said 60 people. All tasks were accomplished. Therefore, the dwarves brought dresses for her and Snowwhite Dwarf made her make-up and the Queen lent her coach with horses. Cinderella went to the castle. Prince chose Cinderella and lived together happily ever after.
